Richmond, January 1, 1863.

The undersigned have this day formed a copartnership, under the firm of HARVEY, HUNT, JAMES & CO., for the purpose of conducting a General Auction and Commission Business at the old stand of Harvey, Armistead & Williams, on Virginia Street, under the Tobacco Exchange.

They solicit consignments of Groceries, Cotton, Flour, Tobacco Manufactured, Smoking and Leaf, and produce and merchandise generally, which they will offer either at auction or private sale as the parties may prefer, pledging the most prompt and strict attention to all business confided to them.

They are also prepared, when desired, to make liberal cash advances on consignments.

They will hold their first auction sale at an early day, for which they now solicit consignments.

A. F. HARVEY,
JAMES C. HUNT,
HENRY JAMES,
W. A. ARMISTEAD,
JOHN H. WILLIAMS.

Richmond, January 1, 1863.

HARVEY, HUNT, JAMES & CO. would particularly call the attention of the old friends of Harvey, Armistead & Williams, and Hunt & James, to the above copartnership, and respectfully solicit their patronage for the new concern.
